TEN CENTS PER WEEK

DRY DOCKS WILL BE LARGE ENOUGH FOR BIG PACKETS

Ayer-Lord Plant Being Built
at Brookport--Will Be Brought Here.

It Will Have Monthly Payroll
of 5,000.

COMPLETE IN EIGHT WEEKS.

The first piece of fir timber to be used in the construction of the Ayer & Lord tie company's dry docks was sawed and the first spike driven this morning when a force of about 10 carpenters began work.

The docks, which are to be located at the foot of Jefferson street, are being built at Brookport under the direction of Thomas Cutting, an experienced shipbuilder of Metropolis. While only a small amount of material is on hand, early shipments of the remainder are expected from Washington and the docks will be ready to an early completion.

According to Captain Henry Baker, superintendent of the company's work here, the docks will be large enough to accommodate the largest packet boats. It is being built large enough to support the towboat Russell-Lord, the flagship of the tie company's fleet here, and this means that the largest river craft can be repaired on them. The docks will be 600 feet and operated by 22 combination steam and hand pumps. Upon their completion, which will be about eight weeks, they will be towed to Paducah and the Ayer & Lord tie company will begin repairing their boats, employing a large force of shipbuilders and carpenters with an average payroll of $5,000 per month.

While the docks are to be used primarily for the purpose of caring for the company's boats, they will also be used in repairing other boats when there is a slump in business. Boats that are now forced to go elsewhere for repairs will come here as the marine ways are not able to take care of all craft seeking repairs. The enterprise will add maintenance to the local industries and give employment to men the year round.

The docks will be exempt from taxation for a period of five years.

Navigation Almost Ceases.
Unless the Ohio and Tennessee rivers come to a halt navigation will be tied up at Paducah within a few days, with no prospects of a rise.

The steamer Boh Dudley, which arrived last night from Clarksville, Tenn., after experiencing extreme difficulty in getting here, has withdrawn from the Cumberland river trade and will enter the Paducah and Evansville trade tomorrow, leaving here at 10 o'clock. The steamer John L. Lowry, the regular Evansville packet, is reported enroute between here and Evansville. She draws over three feet of water while the Dudley, the lightest draught boat on the river, draws only 19 inches. She will be able to run at a very low stage.

Today the government gauge showed 3.7 feet of water and the reports from above are gloomy. The government report today showed a slight rise of three-tenths of a foot at Pittsburgh and at Louisville, while at other points the river is at a stand or falling. Captain Saunders A. Fowler announced today that unless there is a rainfall the Dick Fowler would withdraw from the Paducah and Cairo trade in a few days while the low stage may force the George Covilling, ferryboat Robertson and Ohio to the up.

There is little water in the Tennessee river and both the Clyde and Kentucky are finding it difficult to get over some spots.

On account of the government gauge at Paducah being broken and disconnected near the four-foot mark the exact stage of the water cannot be told at Paducah. Hils have been sent in by local foundries to repair the gauge, but the contract has not been let.

Measurements are now being taken from the end of the sewer, a few yards south of the gauge.

Mississippi river interests are suffering from the low stage. Both the Stucker Lee and James Lee are reported aground in the Mississippi and the Lee line has chartered the packet Electra, which will leave Paducah tomorrow for Cairo to run between there and Memphis. The crew of the Stucker Lee arrived from Memphis early this morning with Capt. John Flanagan.

Mr. J. Renfro, of Plumpkin, Tenn., is visiting in the city.

Flags Train With Red Skirt and Saves Lives of Passengers, Who Give Rescuer Hatful of Money

Colored Farmer Puts Out Trestle Fire and Stops Cairo Passenger Train From Going Through.

Lives of about 60 passengers were saved this morning when Illinois Central passenger train No. 822, en route from Cairo to Paducah with Chicago and St. Louis connections, was flagged with a red flannel petticoat by Ed Harris, a young colored farmer, and prevented from rushing on a trestle that was weakened by fire.

The passengers rewarded Harris by handing him a cup full of coins and bills. Some passengers, whose purses were slim, took his address with the promise to send more money. After counting the money, Harris had a few cents over $46.

The fire was seen by Harris this morning when he went to his barn to feed his stock, and he at once went out to the trestle, which is between Harlow and La Center, about 23 miles west of Paducah. The fire was burning briskly, but Harris carried water from the stream in a bucket and extinguished the blaze after two spans were destroyed, leaving only the bare and unsupported rails spanning the gap.

With the fire extinguished, Harris thought of the approaching passenger train, which was due in a short time. He rushed to his home and secured an old red flannel petticoat and flagged the train about a half mile from the burned trestle. At the time the train was speeding about 50 miles an hour, and but for the fortunate discovery of the fire, would have crashed onto the trestle as the engineer could not have seen the weakened condition of the trestle in time to check his train.

When the passengers saw the condition of the trestle and realized how narrow their escape from death or serious injuries was, they heaped their reward to Harris. He walked through the train holding out his hat, while the coins fairly swelled the hat. Several ladies in the Pullman sleeper gave him all their small change and took his name and address.

The train, in charge of Engineer William O. Hurch and Conductor Henry Harris, arrived in Paducah at 9 o'clock, one hour and a half behind time. The two spans for a distance of 40 feet were destroyed. Bridge men at Harlow were rushed to the scene and quickly made the trestle passable.

The act of Harris will be reported to the railroad officials and it is not unlikely that his reward will be increased.

Danville Murder Case.

Danville, Ill., Oct. 31.—Accused of murdering Mrs. Elsie Cochran, whose mutilated body was found in a field near here, Fred Garner, who has been under surveillance, was arrested today. He denies his guilt. The arrest followed the discovery by the sheriff of a horse which, when hitched to a buggy, practically retraced the route from town to the scene of the killing.

His Sixty-sixth Birthday.

Alderman Joe E. Potter, 4th North Fourth street, was pleasantly surprised today by his daughters with a birthday dinner in honor of his sixty-sixth birthday. The dinner was an entire surprise to him, but none the less enjoyable.

Jonah Fire Causes Firemen Disasters

A small fire in the rear of the store of the H. A. Petter Supply company, during which a board fence was damaged, was a regular Jonah to the fire department yesterday morning about 11:30 o'clock.

In the first place one of the new combination pumper and fire boxes at First street and Broadway was pulled, but it failed to register properly at either the fire station or the police station. The firemen tried to locate the fire by telephone, but failed. After about five minutes' delay the box was pulled the second time, and the companies answered, but the fire was already out. In getting out of the Central station one of the doors failed to open and the tongue of the hose wagon struck it, breaking out glass and knocking out a panel. The streak of bad luck continued a few minutes later. The No. 4 truck was traveling at a high rate of speed on Kentucky avenue between Fifth and Fourth streets. The black horse to the truck slipped and fell and was dragged about 100 feet before the heavy truck could be checked. Captain Harry Rudolph barely clung to the seat. The horse was bruised so badly that he will be out of service for several weeks.

Horse Had to Be Killed.
A fine bay horse pulling one of the West Kentucky Coal company's wagons and driven by Jerry Harris, colored, slipped and fell in front of the St. Nicholas hotel, 302 South Third street, about 8:30 o'clock this morning, breaking its right hind leg above the hock. Dr. Ed Farley, a veterinarian, killed it using a hypodermic. The horse was valued at about $150.

THE WEATHER

The predictions and temperature for the past twenty-four hours will be found at the top of the seventh column on page four.

ALL HALLOWE'EN.

This is all hallowe'en and residents would do well to take precautions to see that gates, swings, porch furniture and other moveable possessions are under padlocks or stored away in places of safety. The weird holiday will be observed by the young people in many ways. Several dances will be given, while numerous informal parties will be given.

FATALLY STABBED WITH SCISSORS

STRIKEBREAKING GARMENT WORKER KILLED BY STRIKER.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Joseph Conrad, a strikebreaking garment worker, was picked up in a dying condition in a South Side street today, his back terribly gashed with cutting shears. Three men were captured as they ran from the scene of the assault. The trio deny guilt and accused a striker named Frank Gartner, who escaped.

May Be General Strike.

New York, Oct. 31.—The International Teamsters' union today announced that if policemen are not removed from express wagons involved in the helpers' strike, every union teamster in the city will be called to strike. The worst labor tie-up of the city's history is threatened.

JOPPA HOTEL IS BURNED EARLY SUNDAY MORNING

Joppla, Ill., Oct. 31. (Special.)—The two-story annex of the C. & E. hotel, located on the river front, was completely destroyed by fire, which originated at 6 o'clock Sunday morning. The annex consisted of fourteen rooms and the fire gained such a headway that it was impossible to check it. The loss was several thousand dollars.

CHINESE LOAN IS START OF REFORM

AMERICAN CAPITAL NEGOTIATES

Morgan, Kuhn, Loeb and company, the National City and the First National Banks of New York, China today entered upon a period of reform that has been urged for ten years by every power having an interest in the far east. The bulk of the loan will be used in reviving the Chinese currency system.

BISHOP SPEAKS TO TWO THOUSAND PEOPLE AT MASS

Rt. Rev. Denis O'Donoghue
Confirms Class of One Hundred, Three.

St. Francis de Sales Church
Crowded.

HE VISITS FOUR CHURCHES.

Fully two thousand persons attended the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church yesterday morning at the 9:30 mass, when the bishop, the Right Reverend Denis O'Donoghue, administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of one hundred and three. The first mass was at 6 o'clock, and the second mass, at which a class of about 50 received their first communion, was at 7 o'clock.

The bishop was escorted from the parsonage to the church by the members of the Holy Name Society and the Knights of Columbus. They marched from the house on Sixth street and entered the front doors of the church on Broadway. The bishop was immediately preceded by 27 altar boys, who assisted at the mass. The Rev. Father Monaghan, the bishop's secretary, said the mass, after which confirmation was administered.

Father Connelly, in a few well chosen words, welcomed the bishop to Paducah, on his first visit. The bishop replied modestly. He then addressed the congregation for a few minutes, after which he spoke more especially to the confirmation class.

He complimented the congregation on the handsome church it has erected and said that he had always had the best of reports about the condition of the congregation here, its zeal and energy and Catholic spirit. He then spoke of the church of God and the duty of its members.

"Each of us," he said, "has his duty to perform to bring the non-Christian into the fold, by word and by example. Thus you can show what the Catholic church stands for. We may think this is but little, but, if we are the means of bringing one soul to God, we have accomplished a great thing. How much do we applaud the deeds of heroism? The person who saves one from drowning, or the hero who rescues an inmate of a burning house, cut off, apparently, from all means of escape, is loudly cheered, but the salvation of a soul is a far greater deed. We do much to prolong life. But, what does it profit us to prolong life, if we do not seek to save the soul?"

In speaking of the confirmation class he dwelt on the blessings the sacrament brought, and what the duty meant to each, and then spoke of the obligation of the young people to their church, their fellow man, to themselves.

To the Confirmationists.

"If it were as easy to do right as it is to do wrong, life would be easy," he said. "Heaven is a reward, not an accident. We have to fight for it. Life is a warfare and we are soldiers, fighting the enemies of the soul. To do wrong is easy; anyone can sin. A villain, with one stroke of a hammer, can wreck the finest work of art. And by one sin we can wreck the purest of lives. The enemies of the soul, the devil and all his cohorts, are always at hand, with their temptations.

"What is the devil's object in seeking our ruin? He has fallen himself, and his jealousy and hatred of the cross prompt his desire to crush the soul. You will have to guard against him today, and every day. There are many inducements to lead astray.

"Your great work is to serve God. The gifts to us serve us given each of you."

He spoke of the great beauty of prayer and its aid to right thinking and living. "You are soldiers, so salute your commander when you arise in the morning and again address him when you prepare to retire at night. Practice the virtue of piety every day as the great means to salvation. Prayer is one of the great aids of piety."

He likened prayer to the two rails on which the huge passenger trains and freights traverse the railroad highways. When they are in good condition, and so kept, there is no danger for the precious burdens they carry. A thrown switch or a loose rail means destruction, wreck and loss. A lapse from prayer was the unlocked switch, the broken rail of the soul's highway to Heaven.

Puts in Busy Day.

Yesterday afternoon Bishop O'Donoghue confirmed a class at the St. John's Catholic church in the county. He returned to Paducah late yesterday afternoon and left last night at 6:15 o'clock for Mayfield, where he

OKLAHOMA INJUNCTION IN RATE CASE STANDS

Washington, Oct. 31.—The United States supreme court this afternoon denied a petition for a writ of certiorari in the Oklahoma two-cent rate case. The federal district court had granted an injunction in favor of the Santa Fe, Missouri Pacific and other railroads, preventing the enforcement of the state's two-cent law. That injunction is sustained by the highest court.

WRIST IS SHATTERED BY SHOTS FROM GUN

Charles Summers, the 13-year-old son of Mrs. Lula Summers, 413 Elizabeth street, came near being killed outright Sunday morning at Cottonwood Bar, while lifting a shotgun from his skiff.

The trigger struck the boat, sending a load of shot into the ulnar of the left wrist, seriously wounding young Summers, who was brought hurriedly to Paducah by Capt. E. A. Ault in the launch Cutaway II, which was landing a log raft at the time. Summers came near bleeding to death and is not out of danger. The wrist was torn into shreds, but Dr. W. J. Hines, the attending physician, believes he can save the arm.

CITY RECOVERS PART OF BOND IN 2 SALOON CASES

Surety Company Agrees to Pay $750 For Both.

Injunction of Rickman Is Dissolved.

CIRCUIT COURT JURY TRIALS.

The right of the mayor to revoke the city license of a saloonkeeper when the law was violated was upheld in circuit court this morning, when Circuit Judge William Reed dissolved the injunction of M. L. Rickman against the City of Paducah. Rickman keeps a saloon and was fined in police court for violating the liquor law. Mayor Smith promptly revoked his city license, but Rickman secured an injunction and has kept open. In order to give Rickman an opportunity to take an appeal to the appellate court the injunction will not become effective until the expiration of 20 days. It is understood that Rickman will not appeal.

The suits of the city against the Illinois Surety company for $1,000 on each of the bonds of Rickman and Pnce Brothers, were compromised for $750. The compromise being entered in the Rickman case and the Pnce case being dismissed.

Jury Trials.

Jury trials of cases set for trial at the October civil session of the McCracken court began this morning. The petit jurors were empaneled, and the trials started off with a vim. The most important case on the docket for trial today was the personal injury case of W. D. Hedge against the Paducah Traction company for $20,000 for the loss of a leg. The evidence was finished this morning, and the arguments begun this afternoon.

Hedge was struck by a Union station car last year at Sixth and Washington streets and his leg was mangled so badly that amputation was necessary. Hedge, who is from Illinois, asserts that he was a passenger on the street car, and that the conductor refused to stop the car and let him off at Kentucky avenue. Then he alleges he walked to the front platform and requested the motorman to stop the car. He refused, according to Hedge, and pushed him off the front platform. He fell under the front trucks. The traction company introduced endeavors to show that Hedge was not a passenger on the street car, and while intoxicated walked in front of the car and was struck before the motorman could check the car.

First Verdict.

The first verdict returned was in the suit of Morgan & Boren against J. S. Downs & company in favor of the plaintiff for $50. The plaintiff alleged that over the failure to deliver some stone by a certain date that a delay was occasioned and it was necessary to secure it elsewhere.

The Jurors.

The jury trials will continue for two weeks. The petit jurors empaneled are: W. T. Gholson, T. H. Harrison, J. P. Graham, J. N. Boyd, H. L. Ross, G. O. Price, J. L. Potter, Joseph Yonker, T. H. Crick, C. W. Carneal, J. W. Harris, F. E. Lack, J. H. Stewart, W. M. McKinney, J. S. Pryor, L. E. Bearden, Dennis Champey, G. A. Bondurant, Eugene Ball, L. D. Sanders, C. D. Stewart, W. L. Shepherd, J. P. Sanderson, S. A. Kaufman, G. W. Potts, D. J. Miller, A. E. Anspacher, W. C. Skinner, George Meyers, Steve Citter.

REACTION FROM ABNORMAL MARKET

NOTED BY HENRY CLEWS IN WEEKLY LETTER.

General Tendency Is Toward Improvement But Money Bears Watching.

POLITICS ARE ABOUT SETTLED

New York, Oct. 31.—The reaction in the stock market came, as fore shadowed in my last week's letter. The pace of the two previous weeks had been altogether too rapid,
and much of the advance in that period was quickly lost. Although the rise in the market had been led by very powerful and aggressive interests, yet there remained exceedingly influential parties not entirely in sympathy with the advance. As a result the taking of profits began on a large scale.

Aside from profit-taking and manipulation an important cause of reaction rested on monetary developments. Last week's advance in the bank of England rate concentrated attention upon the monetary strain threatened in London. For months past foreign exports have been harping upon the probability of a monetary crisis in the United States this autumn. Singularly enough the situation has developed so that there is little or no danger of a crisis in this country, and that if a crisis is to occur at all it will most probably be in London, just where the warning to America has originated.

Money.
The money market will require watching. Loans are considerably in excess of deposits, an unusual and undesirable circumstance. Preparations are in order for November disbursements. The strain in the London money market must have a

Honest Advice to Consumptives

Somewhere there exists a vast amount of knowledge as to the possibility of curing consumption. . . . We state none but the most sincere in what we assert.
If ourselves afflicted with Tuberculosis, we should do precisely what we advise others to do—take Dickson's Allergic promptly and faithfully. . . . The reason we should do this, and warrant it, is that we have the records of many cures, one of which follows:
I am Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa.
Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, and my family physician advised me to remain in bed until I was well. I resisted, however, I remained, and in February of 1902, I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered
I was again advised to go to bed, and I did so. I had taken Dickson's Allergic, I was again advised to go to bed, and I did so. It was at this time,
March, 1902, that I learned of Dickson's Allergic. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well or cured. Since that time I have had two slight attacks of pneumonia
and I have resisted no other medicine
but Dickson's Allergic.
I am at present in excellent health and feel that no longer as I can obtain Dick-son's Allergic, I have no fear of Consumption. I cannot speak too highly for this remedy.
Respectfully,
HOWARD L. KLOTZ,
Dickson's Allergic cured Bronchitis,
Asthma, Hay Fever, Tumor and Lung Abscesses, and for hemorrhages of the lungs, and wrote to the Dickson Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

reflex action here, although valid inquiries are not to be expected at this season, unless Europe should become a free seller of American stocks. London can get accommodation if needed on better terms in Paris than in New York. Local rates for money are firm and good. Commercial paper commands as high as 6 per cent. Canada is already withdrawing funds from New York, and it remains to be seen whether London will force New York to ship gold to Argentina to settle balances there, as was the case a year ago. Again the treasury situation is becoming more acute and the government will soon be obliged to issue bonds to meet expenditures on the Panama Canal. Unfortunately this issue is delayed by interpretations of the law concerning the postal savings banks, which were expected to provide a market for the new bonds. Altogether the money market is in an interesting situation. Doubtless it will work out of present difficulties into an easier condition later on, but during the interval is likely to be a factor of importance in the security market.

Current events, such as the political situation and a not very satisfactory steel report, were also used to explain the reaction; but the real cause lay in the disposition to take profits and the necessity of restrain-ing speculation in order to avoid a severe monetary stringency.

Improvement.
So far as the general situation is concerned, the real tendency is towards improvement. The interior is already beginning to feel the stimulus of a satisfactory harvest. The West has cut down from politics;
seems unconcerned about the money
outlook, and is altogether in a decidedly more hopeful frame of mind.
The recession in business at the West has been much lighter than at the East, and the general feeling in that section is that the tide has turned, and that from now on improvement will be in order. At the South conditions are generally satisfactory, chiefly because of the general profits realized in cotton growing. There is a singular absence of complaints of any kind from that quarter. In the East, where depression has been much the keener, the indications of revival are becoming more pronounced. Trade is still below the volume of several preceding years, but here, too, are indications of a turn in the tide. The steel industry must still be considered one of our best trade barometers. It is stated that only 65 per cent. of the blast furnace capacity of the great Steel Corporation is now being operated. In various directions, however, signs of betterment are multiplying. The inquiry for pig

Home Comfort Assured by Using Cole's Original Hot Blast

It means comfort and health for you and your family to have comfortable living rooms—
We want to sell you one of these truly marvelous heaters—
We know it will give you more home comfort for the money you spend for fuel than you have ever had before—

The same comfort you would get from the most costly Hot Water or Steam Heating Plant you could buy. And besides—Cole's Hot Blast Heater is better because you can regulate it perfectly—

Cole's Hot Blast Heater gives a steady even heat day and night using for fuel the cheapest grades of soft coal. It is as clean as the highest priced Hard Coal Heater and costs you less than half the money—costs less than half to operate throughout the winter because your fuel bill will be cut in two. Surely this is the Heater you want and will have this winter.

This Original Hot Blast Stove has patented features which insure an everlasting air-tight and gas-tight construction. No leaky stove will hold fire—remember that.

Cole's Patented Hot Blast Draft insures perfect burning of the gases in coal which makes this heater the greatest fuel saver ever known. Soft coal is half gas and is wasted with other stoves.

We are authorized by the Cole Manufacturing Co. to sell this heater on the most rigid guarantee ever made by any stove manufacturer. The Remarkable Guarantee is—

- "1—A saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal, slack or lignite.
- "2—That Cole's Hot Blast will use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with the same size fire pot.
- "3—That the room can be heated from one to two hours each morning with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.
- "4—That the stove will hold fire with soft coal from Saturday night until Monday morning.
- "5—A uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
- "6—That every stove will remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
- "7—That the feed-door is and will remain smoke and dust-proof.
- "8—That the Anti-Puffing Draft will prevent puffing.

Think what this economy of fuel means to you. Think of the comfort—no kindling or rebuilding of the fire in the morning. Simply open the draft. You live in an even temperature which means health to your family. Uneven temperature means colds or worse.
Burns any kind of fuel—Soft Coal, Hard Coal, Slack, Lignite or Wood.
Over 60,000 of Cole's Hot Blast Heaters sold during the year of 1909.

LOVE DOCTOR

The Comedy Farce of the Season.

from during the last week has shown a decided revival, indicating that industrial establishments see better times ahead. Moreover, before very long the railroads are likely to enter the market as larger purchasers, and their transactions are always the most important and significant factors in the steel industry. For many months the railroads have curtailed purchases and postponed improvements as far as possible. Such economy cannot go on indefinitely, and ere long we are likely to see an accumulation of orders that will impart old-time activity to our steel mill. For reasons of their own the railroads have further delayed the placing of orders until having some idea as to what the outcome would be for their claims for better rates
before the Interstate commission.
These decisions may be expected soon after the elections. In all probability the railroads will obtain some concessions; while traffic has been so well sustained in spite of the recent depression in trade that dividend rates have not been at any time seriously imperiled.

As for the political situation, that will soon settle down to normal conditions. Within two weeks the fight will be over, and the campaign has already degenerated into one of personalities rather than economic issues. The technical situation of the market is good. Stocks are in strong hands, and prices generally upon a level that should be attractive to investors. The recent reaction will probably be beneficial, because it will impress upon operators the necessity of caution, and tend to avert monetary difficulties. Before very long funds will begin to return from the agricultural districts, and Western farmers, it is said, are borrowing this year less than usual.

Western bankers seem to anticipate
a plethora of idle funds next winter,
which means that money will ultimately accumulate at this centre and bring in lower rates and rising bank reserves. In the bond market there has been considerable improvement,
and the outlook is now more hopeful than for some time past, although the recent decline in stocks has temporarily checked the investment demand.

AT THE KENTUCKY.

Thursday night—Joseph Sheehan's

Grand Opera Co., in "Il Trovatore."

Friday night—Sylvan Players in Rostand's "Les Romanesques" or

"The Love Doctor."

SEAR—Family Vaudeville.

GEN—Pictorial.

Thursday in "Il Trovatore," "to see that gradually the general public is beginning to realize that grand opera does not mean something intended only for the musician. During the past three years I have given special attention to those operas which are interesting to the average playgoer as well as to the musician and of these none quite so well fills the bill as "Il Trovatore." It is for that reason that I have secured the foremost artists in the country, each one particularly fitted for his or her role and am playing that one opera only this season.

"Given in English 'Il Trovatore' is an interesting story and plot as any drama ever staged and seldom has a drama been staged with such a cast of stars as are in my company
this year.

"Besides the strong dramatic side
there is the beautiful and tuneful music. From a standpoint of melody alone no comic opera can compare with it. What comic opera has such beautiful numbers as the picturesque
"Anvil Chorus," the wonderful "Misericordia" in the tower scene, the famous trio at the end of the first act,
the duel and sword fight at the close of the convent scene and others.

"Of Rostand, the greatest French
dramatist, possibly since Moliere, much has been written and much more said. In passing it is due Mr.
Myers, of the Majestic, and Mr.
Nicholson, of the present company, to pay both a compliment for the coupling of the oldest and the newest in the literary French comedy
for the satisfaction of Evansville people, who like a little soundness in their drama, along with the lightness. No man since the days of Shakespeare has attained such a position of supremacy in the annals of literature and the stage as Ros-tand. His mind, as is the case with all truly great men, is universal.
His sympathies are not confined within the bounds of bourgeois provincialism. They embrace all countries, all climes, all peoples, all things. His fancy has wandered from the heroes of his own native France to the imaginary figures of legendary, or mythological, lore, of Africa, or voices of Greek hero worship are all comprehended within his ken. He is, indeed, the hope of the world's stage as well as that of his own country.

"Commencing with his Les Roman-esques through his La Samaritaine, La Princesse Lointaine, Cyrano de Bergerac, L'Alceste, and Chan-tecler, he has electrified, astonished and charmed an audience bounded only by the circumference of the globe. His genius is not only versatile but universal. He combines the fancy of a poet with the practical ability of a dramatist and an actor.
Les Romanesques is quite different from the others of Rostand's plays.
It is neither a tragedy, an emotional episode nor an animal play. It is in brief a travesty, burlesque, or more precisely a comic revue. Its theme is a burlesque of the story of Iphig-enie and Juliet, accomplished so deftly and with subtle wit and satire as to amuse, while leaving no sting or disturbance to a cherished fancy."

DR. TORREY'S FAREWELL SERMON.

Farewells were said at the auditorium last night, where Dr. R. A. Torrey closed the revival services, which had continued all through October. The room was crowded after midnight. Mr. McEwan sang two of his most beautiful songs, and Dr. Torrey preached at night on "Today and Tomorrow," and in the afternoon on "The Most Important Principle of Life."

After the service last night the ministers all took formal farewells of Dr. Torrey and his workers, and the people crowded around him and he held a levee after the adjournment.

Dr. G. T. Sullivan called on all those who felt they had been helped by the meetings to raise their hands, and every hand in the vast audience was upraised.

The Chautauqua salute was given Dr. Torrey by the audience in farewell.

At the close of the sermon a number went forward to the front seats at Dr. Torrey's invitation to the unconverted, and many stood asking prayers.

Mr. McEwan sang with impressive effect both in the afternoon and evening services. Miss Anderson accompanied with her usual charm. Her playing has been a distinct pleasure of the great meeting.

"When a person comes to the close of such a meeting as this and looks into such a sea of faces and realizes that it is probably the last time he will have the opportunity to preach to them it is tremendously solemn. There are many here who will be saved tonight, or never by hearing the Gospel from my lips, but this is not the most solemn thought; there are men and women here who will be saved tonight or else never saved by the Gospel from anybody's lips. It is the great crisis. There are hundreds here whose eternal destiny will hang upon what they do in the next 30 or 40 minutes. Today and tomorrow is my subject tonight and I have a double text. The first, 'The Holy Ghost said, Today, Heb. iii, 7; the second, 'Boast not thyself of tomorrow,' Prov. xxvii, 1." Dr. Torrey then spoke in part as follows:

"Today is the wise man's day; tomorrow is the fool's day. The wise man is the man who, when he sees what ought to be done, does it today. The foolish man is the man who, when he sees what ought to be done, says, 'I will do it tomorrow.' The man who always does today the thing they see ought to be done today are the men who make a success for time and for eternity. The men and women who put off until tomorrow what ought to be done today are the men and women who make a shipwreck of time and of eternity. 'The Holy Ghost said, Today,' Man, in the folly of his heart, says, 'Tomorrow.'"

"I am going to give you five reasons why every truly wise man in this building who has not already accepted Christ as his Savior, surrendered to Him as his Lord and Master, and openly confessed Him as such before the world, will do it now.

I have no doubt that in this great audience there are literally hundreds if not thousands of men and women who intend to be Christians some time, but who keep saying, 'Not yet.' 'Not today,' and I am going to tell you not merely why you ought to become Christians, but why you ought to become Christians tonight.

First, because: The sooner you come to Christ the sooner you will find the wonderful joy which is to be found in Him.

It is not of controversy that there is in Jesus Christ an immeasurably better joy than there is in the world, a purer joy, a higher joy, a holier joy, a more satisfying joy, a more abiding joy, a more wonderful joy in every way. This fact does not admit of dispute. Every one here tonight who keeps his eyes open knows that it is true.

Go to any person who has ever tried the world and tried Christ, and put to him the question, 'Which joy is better—the joy which you found in the world or the joy which you have found in Christ?' and you will get the same answer every time. The joy found in the world is not for a moment to be compared with the joy that is found in Christ. I have tried both. I have had abundant opportunity to try both. If ever a person had an opportunity to try what his world can give, I had it, and I tried it. I tried all that could be found in the world, then I turned to Christ and tried Him, and my testimony is just like the testimony of millions of others who have found that the joy of the world is nothing and the joy in Christ is everything.

I don't care how fully a person may have gone into the joys of this world, or how great his opportunity may have been to test them; go to anybody that has tried both and you cannot find in all the world a man that has really found Christ but will tell you there is a joy in Christ higher, deeper, broader, wider, longer, more wonderful in every way, than the joy that the world gives. Well, friends, the sooner you come to Christ the sooner you will have that joy.

Second: The sooner you come to Christ the sooner you will escape the wretchedness and misery that there is away from Christ.

First of all there is the misery of an accusing conscience. No one in this building out of Christ has peace of conscience.

One night I was preaching in Chicago and I asked everybody in the building who had found rest and perfect satisfaction through the acceptance of Christ to stand up, and hundreds of men and women, more than a thousand, rose to their feet, and then I asked them to sit down, and then I said, 'If there is an infidel in this house that can say he has found rest, and peace, and perfect satisfaction of heart in infidelity, will he please stand?' There were a lot of infidels there. One man got up in the gallery, and I said, 'I see there is a gentleman up there. I am glad that he has the Courage of His Convictions. I would like to speak with him in the after meeting. He came to the after-meeting. I said, 'Mr. S—, you stood up in the meeting tonight to say that you had perfect rest and peace of heart without Christ, and that your soul was satisfied in infidelity. Was that true?' 'Oh,' he said, 'Mr. Torrey, that will have to be qualified.' I guess I will. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

Then there is the slavery of sin away from Christ. 'Whoso committeth sin is the bond-servant of sin' (John viii, 34). Away from Christ is apprehension of what may happen, apprehension of disaster, apprehension of what man may do, apprehension of what may lie beyond the grave. Men and women, when you really come to Christ you Get Rid of Fear of Man; you have no fear of misfortune, for for you are able to say, 'All things work together for good to those who love God;' you have no fear of death, for what men call death is simply to depart and be with Christ. By coming to Christ you get rid of all this wretchedness, you get rid of the accusations of conscience, you get rid of the slavery of sin you get rid of all apprehensions of disaster, you get rid of the dread of death, the moment you really accept Christ. Why not get rid of it all tonight? Suppose you were on the shore, and saw in the distance a wreck and a man clinging to the wreck, and every once in a while the cold waters sweeping over him, and it was a cold wintry night, and you and others should go out in a lifeboat and should say to him, 'We have come to take you off.

Drop Into the Lifeboat' and the man should say, 'No, I think I can hold on until morning; come out again in the morning and I will get into the boat and come ashore;' you would say, 'Man are you mad? Stay out here tonight when you can come ashore now.' Oh, men and women, out on the wreck, every little while the cold waves are breaking over you, all the wretchedness of an accusing conscience, all the wretchedness of

The bondage of sin, all the wretchedness of the fear of possible death, all the multiplied wretchedness of the soul away from God—why cling to the wreck another night, when you can come ashore to safety and joy now? If you will drop right into the lifeboat?

Third: The sooner you come to Christ the more you can do for Christ.

The moment a person is saved he wants to do something for the Master. If you are saved a year from tonight you will go to work for Christ, but there will be one year gone that will never come back between tonight and a year from tonight (if you come a year from tonight) You

Can Never Go Back over this year. You are associated with friends that you can lead to Christ between now and a year from now who may be past your reach then. Before I was converted I had a friend, and we were often together. We lived in the same building. We went pleasuring together. If I had been a Christian I could have led him to Christ. Three years later, after I had accepted Christ, that young man had passed beyond my reach. The day I went back to the university to study for my second degree, my father picked up the New York Herald and began to read about a young man who was out

Daily Thought.

Three things are great—Conscience and will.
And courage to fulfill
The duties they create.

—Anon.

Miss Ethel Claire Leneve, who has just come out from under the doctor's care, is not decided whether she will enter vaudeville.

Mary Garden is wearing a wedding ring, but she won't tell who her husband is. Now, we don't know whose garden she is; we only know the garden's posted.

How much consideration was shown the school board ticket at Lang's drug store, where the Lang-Lightfoot combination ticket was made up, is shown by the fact that in the Third and Sixth wards, where there is one vacancy each, two candidates were placed on the ticket for each vacancy.

MIXED POLITICS.

Mixed political results are predicted this year. In the west and north-west, where inactivity has won its victory, Republicans seem to have no anxiety. In New York, where Tammany and Wall street have formed a combination, by which a decent man is running for governor and Tammany boodlers are after the other offices, the situation is in doubt, with the national administration called in to save the day, too much Roosevelt seemingly having estranged many Republicans. In Ohio the Democrats apparently have a shade the best of it, with Harmon, who was elected the same year Taft carried the state, up for re-election. In Tennessee, the Republicans probably will elect the governor with a fusion legislature. In Nebraska William Jennings Bryan couldn't swallow the Democratic platform, and he is making the result there more than doubtful. If the Republicans win in Nebraska and Democratic win in New York, Bryan and Roosevelt will again be in position to claim the only real orthodox Democracy and Republicanism. Even Illinois is raked, the influence of the Chicago papers having confused voters, and many rockribbed districts are trembling in the balance. Some doubtful districts will slide back over the line of safety this week, but it has been a peculiar campaign.

THE CRANK.

"The crank," says Dr. Torrey, "is something that turns round and round in one place."

Let us do the crank justice; sometimes he turns something constantly in one place, and his usefulness depends upon what he turns and how well he turns it. A crank at a well shaft with a windlass rope and a bucket attached. If there be pure water at the bottom of the well and the rope be long enough, is a fluo thing—a thing to be thankful for; but a crank unattached, or with a windlass and not a rope, or if the rope be too short or not have a bucket at the end, or there be no water in the well, or the water be impure, is a useless thing.

Many cranks there are, "turning" as Dr. Torrey says, "round and round." They make us weary with their constant rotation and irritation; but, after all, it is the man who sedulously applies himself to one thing that produces the great results. Constant study and meditation on one thing makes a man narrow. Without doubt, in every case it detracts from his personality, and as a social being he deteriorates; he loses much that benefits others by contact with him. But if narrowness comes for deepness and that deepness is in the right place, and he produces steady results of usefulness, we can't complain at the loss of his highest social attributes. On the other hand, the world is full of poor, weak, useless bores of cranks, lacking genius, producing no results, excepting enmity and disgust, constantly harping on one side of some great truth until they wear themselves through in one place. One pertinent truth we have discovered; that a crank never attaches itself to anything; it has to be attached by circumstances or otherwise, and when it makes a noise at its turning, it needs greasing. It isn't preaching.

DO YOU WANT MILUS STEWART?

Our morning contemporary, which boasted about the result of the primary, is endorsing for the school board Milus Stewart, whose wages were garnished by Groceriesman Ford for a debt, and who, a grand jury has charged, assaulted the groceryman with a knife for it. Paducah has an excellent school board, that in three years with its limited means has paid off a floating debt of $19,000, increased teachers' salaries and improved the morale of the school, besides making permanent improvements, without incurring a cent of debt beyond the amount of current revenues. Do you voters believe that Milus Stewart's recent conduct indicates especial fitness to take up the work so ably inaugurated by the present board, of which Trustees John K. Ferguson and Samuel T. Hubbard are active and able members?

Heard in the Lobby

Mr. Henry P. Yelser, of Cincinnati, is in the city visiting his brother, former Mayor D. A. Yelser. Mr. Yelser is president of the Globe-Wernicke company, of Cincinnati, and is one of the big men in the commercial world in the Queen City.

Mr. H. O. Thomas, of Cobalt, Canada, who is staying at the Palmer House, has been greatly interested in the adventures of Aeronaut Hawley and his crew in the balloon, which sailed from St. Louis and came down in a northern Canada, directly north of Toronto and northwest of Quebec; for the balloon descended at a point a few miles distant from Cobalt, the nearest telegraph station. Messages about the aeronauts' arrival were sent from Cobalt. "I can understand the predicament those men were in," said Mr. Thomas, "all night in the woods up there. The timber has been burned over by forest fires and in places the wind has blown trees down in piles high as a house. I was scarcely more than a mile from Cobalt one day, and if I had not a good compass with me, I don't know what would have happened. I was several hours getting back; climbing over those huge piles, or trying to go around them, I found myself traveling in a small circle. Think of those men coming down, perhaps, a dozen or 20 miles from town. They might run across Indians or trappers, in which case they would be taken care of, and again they might not." Our town is on a railroad and is connected by interurban cars with other nearby towns, but you run into the wilderness as soon as you get out of the developed mining district.

"Mr. Thomas has a stereopticon view showing something of the situation, which confronted the balloonists.

PATROLMAN SAYS HE WAS FIRED ON

RECEIVED THREATENING LETTER IN MEMPHIS CASE.

Hoodlums Were Unable to Follow Any Trail But the Policeman's.

HE SEARCHED UP THE ALLEY

"Mr. Ogilvie—if you do not tend to your own business and yourself like Frank McManis has dead take warning."

This letter addressed "Mr. Ogilvie, Paducah, Ky." in the same crude handwriting was received by Patrolman Leslie Ogilvie October 18, he says. At the time Patrolman Ogilvie said nothing about the letter in the hope that it might have been a prank, but he never ceased his effort to solve the mystery of the death of Frank McManis. Instead of a signature the letter was concluded with a crude skull and cross bones. The letter was written on a small sheet of ordinary cheap writing paper, and was mailed in an envelope without any marks of identification. The handwriting is legible, but cramped as if the writer desired to conceal his natural hand writing.

Early Sunday morning Patrolman Ogilvie says he was shot at while patrolling his beat.

Patrolman Ogilvie gave his version of the shooting as follows: "While my partner, Patrolman Schraeder, stood at Tenth and Jones streets I walked west to Twelfth and Jones streets and reported to the police station at 2:30 o'clock. I was returning to Tenth and Jones street, and when I was about two-thirds across the alley between Tenth and Eleventh streets, I heard a bullet whizz near my face. Instantly I dropped to the ground, as I was unprepared for such an attack. Three shots were fired in quick succession, but as a fell I saw the flash from the last shot, and I estimate that he must have been 30 or 40 yards from the mouth of the alley.

"My pistol was in the left pocket of my overcoat, and when I fell I reached for it, and as quickly as possible emptied the pistol about the spot I had seen the flash. After reloading my pistol I walked up the alley, but did not see anybody. I heard somebody walking in the lumber yard as if they had jumped the fence. I called to Patrolman Schraeder, and went to the mouth of the alley on Tenth street, but failed to find anybody.

In a few minutes we went back to the box at Twelfth and Jones streets, and informed Night Captain Dorlan, and asked him to have all the patrol men close in and pick up all suspects. We searched in several negroes out on the streets, including a negro woman, who was crazy on coke."

Immediately after the shooting the firemen on watch at the No. 4 station heard the footstep of a man walking rapidly east on Jones street, while Captain Harry Rudolph, who was awakened by the shots, peeped out the window and saw a man walking down the street.

Dogs Couldn't Follow.
In a few minutes after the police headquarters was notified of the shooting, G. T. Riley, of Wickliffe, whose bloodhounds gave an exhibition at Wallace park yesterday, was secured. With the dogs he was rushed to the scene in an attempt to follow the assassin.

The dogs took the trial of Patrolman Ogilvie, and followed his foot steps up the alley, but only once did they get anything like a trail of the shooter. They took the trail in the lumber yard and on the inside of the fences followed the trail to Tenth street, where they went north to the concrete sidewalk on Tenth street. At this point the dogs were

MADISONVILLE

HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS HOPKINSVILLE.

Leaves Three Teams Still in Fight for the Championship.

By the victory of the Madisonville High school football eleven over the strong machine of the Hopkinsville High school Saturday the two teams with Paducah are tied for the High school football championship of western Kentucky. The victory of Madisonville over the Hopkinsville team by a score of 12 to 5 was somewhat of a surprise for the local followers, but it shows that Madisonville has not been idle since her defeat by Paducah. It is immensely pleasing to the Paducah High school fans. If Hopkinsville had won, the Christian county lads would have almost had a clinch on the rag.

Madisonville played just such a game against Hopkinsville as the team did against Paducah. In the first part of the game the Hopkins county lads did not play desperately, but in the close they played grand ball. Until the third quarter at Hopkinsville not a score was made, so in that period of play Hopkinsville showed over Jarrett for a touchdown, but missed a goal. In the final quarter Madisonville made her first touchdown and kicked goal, giving a lead by one point. In the last few minutes of play a second touchdown was made and the goal kicked. Kelly, the Hopkinsville full back, was seriously injured by striking his head against the grand stand.

In the first game of the season for the championship, Paducah defeated Madisonville on local grounds.

PROHIBITION
STATES RIGHTS UPHELD IN THE MEMPHIS CASE.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 31.—Declining to assume jurisdiction and upholding the principle of State's rights, Federal Judge John E. McCall ordered dissolved a temporary injunction restraining the continuance in business of 114 saloonkeepers of Memphis. Notwithstanding the declaration of the Law Enforcement league of Memphis, which through 15 of its members, appeared as complainants, that their appeals to state and local authorities for redress had been unheeded, Judge McCall held that prosecution through grand jury indictments was the proper recourse and was still open.

In answer to the allegation that the constituted authorities of the state were not in sympathy with the prohibition laws as enacted and had refused to act on information furnished, as a method through which their removal from office might be accomplished.

ANNIVERSARY

WILL BE CELEBRATED BY FIRST BAPTIST.

November 13 It Will Have Flourished for Seventy Years in Kentucky.

The seventieth anniversary of the First Baptist church will be celebrated Sunday, November 13, at which time several deacons will be ordained. The church was organized Nov. 14, 1840. The Rev. M. E. Dodd will deliver a special sermon, dealing with the history of the church, its growth and of a backward and forward movement. Yesterday there were 15 additions, five of whom were converts of the Torrey revival. Last night the Rev. Dodd preached on the subject of "Christ—Our Life."

North Twelfth Street.

The Rev. J. R. Clark at the North Twelfth street Baptist church Sunday morning and evening preached on the subject of "Two Judgments." There was a large attendance at both services.

Sunday School Rally.

The Sunday school rally at the Fountain Avenue Methodist church yesterday morning was attended by a large membership. The Rev. William S. Jacoby addressed the school and the orchestra played. The Rev. G. W. Banks filled his pulpit and Mr. William McEwan sang. The orchestra also participated in the service. Dr. Banks left early this morning for Memphis, Tenn., on business.

Anniversary of Reformation.

Today is the anniversary of the reformation, but the celebration was held yesterday at the German Lutheran church on South Fourth street. The Rev. Grother preached in the German language Sunday morning and in English in the evening. Special music by the choir was rendered at the evening service.

At Tenth Street.

Excellent services were held at the Tenth Street Christian church Sunday morning. The protracted meeting, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. G. D. Wyatt, will begin at 7:30 o'clock tonight and an invitation is extended to everyone. Mr. A. J. Hamberg, of the Fountain Avenue Methodist church, will have charge of the singing.

Miss Parker Makes Address.

Miss Mary Moody Parker addressed both the Sunday school and church congregation at the Third Street Methodist church Sunday morning. There was a o e addition. The pastor, the Rev. J. B. Pearson, preached at the Littleville church yesterday afternoon and at the Guthrie Avenue Methodist church last night.

Kentucky Avenue.

The Rev. Peter Fielda occupied the pulpit at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday morning, and delivered a powerful sermon, using for his subject, "The Double Portion of the Spirit of God," relating the instance of the transformation of Elijah, as recorded in the Scriptures. A large congregation was present. Prayer meeting will be resumed Wednesday evening and the service will be an echo of the Torrey revival.

Thirteen Additions to the Church.

The Rev. W. H. Burwell preached from the text, "It is Hard for Them to Kneel Against the Pricks," Acts x, 5, at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning, showing that the man, who disobeys the command of God, always gets hurt. There were eight additions to the church by profession and five by letter.

All Saints' Day. Tuesday, "All Saints' Day" will be observed at the Grace Episcopal church. It will be an annual memorial out of respect to the members of the church who have died during the past year. The service will begin at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. Regular services were held yesterday, the Rev. D. C. Wright, rector, preaching.

Church Notes.

The Lutheran Social club of the German Lutheran church will meet Wednesday evening at the school house.

The Home Mission society of the Third Street Methodist church, met at the church at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Broadway Methodist.

The Rev. B. T. Sullivan occupied the pulpit Sunday morning preaching for the first time after a four weeks' illness, and was greeted by a large congregation. His theme was "The Church and Pentecost," and the sermon was a forcible summing up of the importance of the church today being in the state of the early church at Pentecost, in order that the largest results should be obtained from the great Torrey meeting. He dwelt especially upon the points that the early church: Met together; prayed together; broke bread together; had all things in common, and that souls were added daily to the church. Personal, churchly, aggressive work is necessary on the part of the church to accomplish this.

At the close of the sermon Dr. Sullivan administered the rite of adult baptism to 9 persons, and received 14 into the church.

The official board is requested to meet at 7 o'clock this evening at the church. It is most important that every member be present.

The committee on hospitality for the conference session, will meet with Dr. Sullivan at the parsonage on Tuesday evening to assign the homes to the delegates and notify them by card.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Do Forest, Wis.—"After an operation four years ago I had pains downward in both sides, backache, and a weakness. The doctor wanted me to have another operation. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am entirely cured of my troubles."

Mrs. AUGUSTE VESTERMANN, De Forest, Wisconsin.

Another Operation Avoided. New Orleans, La.—"For years I suffered from severe female troubles. Finally I was confined to my bed and the doctor said an operation was necessary. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial first, and was saved from an operation."

Mrs. LILY PATRICK, 1111 Kerlerec St., New Orleans, La. Thirty years of unparalleled success confirm the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ills from which so many women suffer.

If you want special advice about your case write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

If the Floor is Warm the Whole Room is Warm

The fire in the Wilson Heater is so perfectly under control that with very little attention to the dampers, your rooms can be kept in a constant, healthful temperature. The celebrated Down-Draft creates perfect combustion in the Heater so that the whole heater gives out heat instead of just the top portion, as is the case with other heaters. You know, of course, that hot air rises so that when the Wilson heats the floor as well as the upper air of the room the whole room remains at a steady even temperature.

Never Regained His Consciousness.

As my father read this and came to the name, he said, "Archie, is not that your old friend?" I looked up the paper and read it, and said "Yes; It is my old friend." Called into eternity without a moment's warning and my opportunity of bringing him to Christ gone forever! Oh, how often in the years that have come since, and God has used me to lead others to Christ, how often I have thought back of Frank. In spite of all those who are now coming to Christ, Frank has gone, and my opportunity of saving him lost forever. Men and women, you postpone taking Christ for thirty days, and people that you might have reached during these thirty days will have passed

Beyond Your Reach Forever.

In my last pastorate a woman a little over fifty years of age who had been a backslider was saved through and through, and became the best worker in all the community, but her own two sons had grown up during these years and she was afar from God. They had both married and passed beyond her reach, and though she has been used to bring I don't know how many to Christ, she has never been able to bring these two sons to Christ. Her day of opportunity for them was while she was living in the world. Fathers and mothers afar from God, if you are not saved tonight, you may be some other day; but these sons and daughters that you might bring with you if you come tonight will very likely have passed beyond our reach forever.

The Sooner You Come to Christ the more you can bring with you; so come tonight.

Fourthly: The sooner you come in Christ the richer will be your eternity.

We are saved by grace; we are

Thank God I Was Converted
when I was, but what would I give for those six wasted years through which I deliberately resisted the Spirit of God! But I can't call them back.

Fifth: The sooner you come to Christ the surer you are to come to Christ.

If you are not saved tonight you may be tomorrow night, but you may not. I believe there are scores of people here who will be saved tonight or never. When a person stands on a platform like this, and looks over such a vast audience, and feels in his very soul that the eternal salvation of hundreds of souls is trembling in the balances as the result of that sermon,

It Is An Awful Feeling;

but that is the feeling I have now. I believe there are hundreds of people that hear every word I am just now saying who will either be saved tonight or never. The Spirit of God for a year or more, telling you that you ought to know all about the company that policies you fire insurance, but have you done anything about it? Many have, but the majority of policy-holders have done nothing about the selection of a company. They are still "faddling."

In the history of fire insurance in America, a large majority of the fire insurance companies organized have failed or retired from business. To be insured in companies like Wells's, that have been in business a hundred years and will be in business a hundred years from now, costs no more than to be insured in one that may go out of business next week.

Gauge at I. a. m. read 3.7 feet, indicating a fall of two-tenths of a foot since Sunday, or half a foot fall since Saturday. Weather clear and warmer.

Rivermen are facing a gloomy situation as a result of the constant fall of the rivers and the low stage at present. The sandbar abreast of the wharftboat is growing in acreage each day. The Cumberland is practically empty but there is a fairly good stage yet in the Tennessee. Should the river continue falling navigation will come to a stop.

From Grand Chain the government boat R. J. Armstrong, arrived Sunday for supplies and a little repair work. In charge of Captain Harvey Brown. She returned today to resume work.

Captain Frank Penney, who has been visiting his family in Paducah, returned to Cairo Sunday night. He is in charge of the towboat Barrett.

Low water having driven the heavy packet boats to shore, the Lee line has chartered the Electra, which has been lying at Paducah several weeks. She will leave tomorrow and will run between Memphis and Cairo, leaving Cairo tomorrow afternoon on her regular run in charge of Capt. John Flanagan. Both the packets James Lee and Stacker Lee are aground, the former below Memphis and the latter at Island No. 19 in the Mississippi. The other Lee boats have tied up owing to the low stage.

The U. S. S. Colbert arrived here from McCollough's bar, Tennessee river, Sunday to have repair work done. She returned today.

The sale of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet company's boats, wharftboats, etc., has been postponed again until November 16.

It is estimated that $17,920,848 will be the amount needed to complete the construction of the Panama canal for the fiscal year, which will end June 30, 1912. Nearly one-half of this will go for skilled and unskilled labor and a similar amount for the purchase and delivery of material and supplies.

The F. M. Owens, which operated from the Memphis wharf the past summer as an excursion boat, is tied up at Helena, Ark. by order of court. It is alleged that a debt of $122 is due Lee brothers, of Memphis. The Owens left Memphis several days ago for New Orleans, where she is to run an excursion steamer during the coming winter.

Capt. Flanagan and the crew of the Stacker Lee arrived here last night to take the Electra out tomorrow.

The towboat Charles Turner after delivering a tow of logs at Metropolis, returned at 7 o'clock last night and will get away today for the Tennessee river after another tow.

After carrying off-lals of the Ayer & Lord The company on an inspection trip along the banks of the Tennessee river, the towboat Pavonia returned at 8 o'clock Sunday night.

President J. B. Lord and son, Mr. Russell Lord, will return to Chicago tomorrow. Captain Henry Baker says the conditions were found to be very favorable. The Pavonia will depart for the Tennessee river tomorrow and bring out a tow of logs.

Ducks are plentiful along the Ohio river and Paducah hunters are taking advantage of them.

Captain James F. Browinski, of Jopka, Ill., returned home this morning on the Dick Fowler. Tomorrow he and Capt. Roy Broadfoot, of the towboat Condor, will leave for the upper Mississippi river in their motor boat "H. & H." going to Dog Tooth, 20 miles above Cairo, where they will hunt for wild geese and ducks. They have a supply of decoys and expect to have plenty of fun during the several days' outing.

Sunday afternoon the excursion boat Robertson took a large crowd to Metropolis and returning about 6 o'clock. She is making her regular ferry trips today.

Driven from the Cumberland river by low water the Hob Dudley arrived from Clarksville last night and is tied up at the wharftboat today. She may enter the Evansville trade tomorrow, leaving at 10 a. m. with her same crew.

The John L. Lowry is due to arrive tomorrow from Evansville, although she may be delayed or forced to tie up, owing to low water. On her last trip here she went aground at Elizabethtown, and the river has been falling slowly since.

The Clyde will arrive tomorrow from Waterloo, Ala., and return Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. The stage of the Tennessee will permit a few more trips.

From St. Louis the excursion boat Alton arrived today and went into winter quarters in the Duck's Nest, up the Tennessee.

The Dick Fowler left at 8 o'clock this morning for Cairo and is due back early tonight. If the river continues to fall she will be forced to discontinue the trade.

Capt. Les Bennett, who is pilot on the U. S. S. Colbert was in Paducah today to meet friends.

Joe Stenott, third clerk on the Kentucky, resigned Saturday night after several months' service. He has been succeeded by Lonnie Rogers, formerly second clerk on the Reuben Dunbar.

According to reports from Evansville the steamer E. A. Woodruff is held up having repairs made to a cylinder head, which she blew out while pulling a snag opposite Fulton town near the Indiana shore. The assistant engineer's leg was fractured by a piece of iron. Rivermen are wondering why the Woodruff has overlooked the wreck near Mounds. They say the wreck, which is a sunk coal boat has been there at least three years and the Woodruff has had time to take a pull at it.

The Ohio arrived from Golconda on time this morning and left at 2 o'clock this afternoon for a return trip.

The George Cowling made her two regular trips between Paducah and Metropolis today on time.

Mr. A. C. Church was in the city Saturday, and returned that evening for Chicago, where he accompanied the body of his father, Frank L. Church. Mr. Church is manager of the classified advertising of the Chicago Journal.
